Washington - Congressman Charlie Wilson (OH-6) is pleased to announce that the Congressional Committee on House Administration will be hosting the 2007 Minority Procurement Seminar on Thursday September 27 in Washington, DC.

The class will focus on contracts let by the offices of the Architect of the Capitol (AOC), the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO), the General Services Administration (GSA), and the Small Business Administration (SBA). In recent years these offices have provided over $1 billion in contracts to private vendors, and they would like to take this opportunity to educate local private contractors on how they can provide their goods and services to the Federal government.

The day long seminar will be held in the Grand Hyatt Hotel in downtown Washington, DC. Registration forms are available to be downloaded on Congressman Wilson's website (<http://www.charliewilson.house.gov>), and in the Congressman's district offices (located in Canfield, Wellsville, Bridgeport, Marietta, and Ironton). There is a registration fee of $50 which is due, along with the form, by September 1.
